ACADEMIC DISMISSAL

7.1 The appeal will be subject to the following conditions:

7.1.1 The appeal must be filed within thirty calendar days after written notice of the decision.

7.1.2 The student may not appeal if the student is not a member of the institution, and the student is not a resident of the institution.

7.1.3 The student may be advised by a person or firm of their choice from the College; otherwise, the faculty member, academic advisor, or committee recommending academic dismissal may have an advisor from the College. The student, the student's advisor, or the student's representative may not advise or otherwise participate directly in the proceedings, unless they are specifically permitted to do so by the individual or committee conducting the appeal.

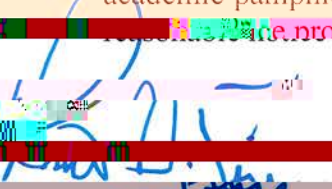

7.1.4 Witnesses may be called by any of the parties involved.

7.1.5 A record of the proceedings shall be maintained by the institution and will be provided to the student upon request.

7.1.6 The institution shall determine whether the student's academic dismissal is final.

SECTION 8. PUBLICATION

The institution's criteria and procedures for publication shall be published in one or more appropriate college publications such as catalogs, student handbooks, academic pamphlets, and handouts. Such requirements are subject to change with the institution's policies and procedures provided to the students.
